Dear Library Patron,

You are invited to join the Friends of the Clifton Park-Halfmoon Public Library. Our membership has grown to nearly 500 households and we are accomplishing a great deal for the library and the community, including:

1. Providing outreach programs for those without easy access to the library
2. Running used and new book sales at various times throughout the year
3. Contributing ongoing support to the library with gifts, funds, and volunteers for special projects
4. Honoring a local author each year
5. Arranging bus trips to cultural events as well as international travel
6. Publishing an informative newsletter.

In addition to belonging to an excellent organization, other benefits include:

- Friends newsletter mailed to your home
- Early admission to book sales
- Invitation to Friends and Library events.

Please complete the form that follows and send it with your check to:
